

Established in March 2011, BandWagon Magazine is a key player in the music scene of northern Colorado and Cheyenne. Operating from its base in the Moxi Theater in Downtown Greeley, the magazine offers comprehensive coverage of both local and nationally touring artists. It has grown to become an invaluable resource for music enthusiasts in the region, serving up insightful news and features that contribute to a dynamic local music culture.

In 2021, the BandWagon family expanded with the addition of BandWagon Presents. Today BandWagon Presents creates an array of live music experiences across Colorado and Wyoming. From intimate local shows to large-scale events, BandWagon Presents plays an essential role in enhancing the regional music scene and for platforming artists.
